

Robert Scott Richards

Mr. Robert Scott Richards was born in Birmingham, Alabama, USA on 12 June 1979. He graduated with a degree in psychology from Wake Forest University, and then obtained a master's degree in financial economics from Oxford University. Mr. Richards has participated in numerous training programmes as well as professional engagements in Spain, Poland and Russia, and in Bolivia as part of the United States Peace Corps.

He started his career in finance with various international companies, such as Citigroup Global Markets, Ltd and Chatham Financial Europe. After that he worked for Developing World Markets in Stamford, USA as a banking associate. In 2012 he began working at responsAbility Investments AG in Switzerland as a Senior Credit Risk Manager, and then as an Investment Officer, Financial Institutions Equity.

