

Dr.Gabriel Isaac Schor

Mr.Gabriel Isaac Shchor was born in Rosario, Argentina on 18th January 1952. He is graduated on MSc in Economics and in Sociology from University of Frankfurt, Germany and then obtained Ph.D in Economics from the University of Trier, Germany.

He started his career in Germany as Teacher and Research Assistant at University of Frankfurt. Then he has worked at IPC GmbH as Independent Consultant, Senior Expert and Managing Director, especially for managing the projects of the company in Latin America.

During the period 2004-2022 he was part of the Management Board of ProCredit Holding. He was responsible for management of various areas, such as accounting and taxes, supervisory reporting and capital planning, group funding and treasury, controlling, reporting and data management, investor relations, administration and translation.

Mr. Schor has enriched his professional experience in the field of banking supervision while he has served as chairperson / member of Supervisory Board of Banco ProCredit Ecuador S.A; ProCredit Bank Kosovo and some other institutions Latin-America.

After his retirement, Mr. Schor works as an independent advisor profiled especially in the areas of investor relations, , capital planning, funding and treasury, controlling, reporting and data management, etc.

He speaks Spanish, German, English, Portuguese and French.