

Jordan Damcevski

Mr. Damcevski was born in Skopje on 22 November 1972. He graduated with a degree in Economics from the Faculty of Economics at St. Cyril and Methodius University in Skopje, where he also completed his Master's and doctoral studies. Mr. Damcevski has participated in several training programmes and international professional conferences organised in Austria, Germany, Slovenia, Croatia, Hungary, USA, and Macedonia.

Mr. Damcevski started his career as a financial officer in a wholesaling company, after which he worked in the National Bank of the Republic of Macedonia in the Department of Research. In 2000, he was appointed Head of Unit in the National Bank of the Republic of Macedonia. Since 2001 he has served as Manager of the Economic Office in the Embassy of the United States of America in Skopje, where his main responsibility is advising the United States Ambassador in Skopje and other officials of the Department of State on macroeconomic developments, the financial system and the capital market in Macedonia.